

At the annual election of officers, the following brothers were honored: President, Brother Caspar; treasurer, Brother Cook; recording secretary, Brother Mitchell; corresponding secretary, Brother Longren; and herald, Brother Larrabee. As Brother Caspar has enlisted, Brother Cousins was elected to succeed him.

H has a fine ball team in the Interfraternity League and is well up in the standing.

We were greatly pleased recently to be honored with a visit by Brother Walter H. Snell, Z '13. If any brothers are ever up this way, we trust they will endeavor to make us a visit.

EZRA P. ROUNDS, '20, Charge Editor.

Initiates: Hans Hartman, of Crockett, Cal.; Robert H. Reid, of Los Angeles, Cal.

The two new brothers are "comers" in athletic circles, for Brother Reid is a "human fish," and Brother Hartman would rather run a mile than "queen a co-ed."

In common with her sister Charges, H^Δ has severely felt the loss of the brothers who have entered the service, but particularly so during the last two quarters of the college year. The number of brothers at Stanford in January was twenty-two; at present there are only twelve members of the Charge left, including the initiates, who are still in college preparing for future calls.

H^Δ brothers have been far from inactive in athletics this year. Brother "Ken" Lilly, who was also captain of the varsity baseball team, carved out a niche in Stanford's Hall of Fame by winning a hotly contested 100-yard dash in the recent track meet with California, in spite of the fact that he had sprained his ankle in the final baseball game on the morning of the meet. Brother "Pinky" Samis also won his "S" in the same meet. Freshmen brothers of H^Δ were likewise active in athletics. Brother Reynolds played on the "frosh" baseball nine and made the swimming team. Brother Reid swam for '21, too, showing that Theta Delta Chi is well represented in aquatics at Stanford. In track, Brother Hartman and Brother Sharp both won their '21 numerals in the "frosh" meet with California. Brother Irvine also made the freshman track team.

H^Δ is represented in Stanford publications as well. Brother "Monk" Antrim holds the position of art editor on the staff of the Chaparral, and was one of the editors of the 1919 Quad. Two freshmen, Brother Mitchell and Brother Sharp, are also on the staff of the Daily Palo Alto. Brother Samis held an undergraduate editorship of the Illustrated Review, as well as the presidency of the sophomore class for the quarter.

The new academic ruling that all freshmen must stay one year in the men's dormitory before living at a fraternity will seriously affect the Charge next year, but we hope to be able to weather the storm, although the course will undoubtedly be hard. At least, "while there is life there is hope," so H^Δ does not despair.

Don't forget that H^Δ is always open house to all Theta Deltas.

B. R. SHARP, '21, Charge Editor.

Initiates: Herbert W. Smith, Fall River, Mass.; Ivan F. Chambers, Wilmington, Del.

Except for our recent loss of Brothers "Willie" Zimmerman and "Josh" Welch, who are now in the service of Uncle Sam, Θ^Δ has been running along very smoothly. Brother Zimmerman was elected treasurer of the Charge shortly before his departure, and had been doing some excellent work in that office up until the last minute. Brother Welch was Charge editor for a short time before being called into active service in the Navy. He suffered a severe attack of pneumonia immediately upon entering the service, and is now at the Naval hospital in Charlestown, S. C., where, according to latest reports, his condition is improving. Brother F. Scott Carpenter, who enlisted in naval aviation early in the year, has finished ground school and is now in Florida in flying school. Brothers Stitt and Burnham are at the ground school at M. I. T., and, of course, we see them at the house frequently.

Our regular election of officers brought the following results: president, W. A. Maynard; treasurer, Percy Bugbee; herald, Waldo B. Clark; Charge editor, J. C. Wilson.

Brother "Herm" Dedichen has just returned from a brief trip through the South, where he visited a number of factories with the American Electrochemical Society.

Brothers "Joe" Deyette and "Woody" Wilson have invested in a Ford touring car, in which they hope to drive to their homes in Oregon this summer. They are expecting to stop at some of the Charge houses on the way, provided the houses are open.

The Charge continues to hold its own in the activities at the Institute. "Perk" Bugbee has recently been initiated into the Masque, an honorary society at Tech, and later he was made business manager of the Tech Show for next year; "Bevo" Broockman has come to the front in tennis, having won the doubles, and the runner-up cup in the singles in the New England intercollegiate tournament. We advise all Thetes to place their bets on "Bevo" of M. I. T. next year.

The Thetes are coming strong in interfraternity baseball at Tech. So far we have won every game and it only remains for us to win the finals. The baseball cup has been for two years, and will probably remain, a permanent fixture at Θ^{Δ} . "Dode" Spiehler, who pitched on the Rochester varsity team, is doing the honors for us. Several of the freshmen are showing good form at various positions on the team.

The juniors and many of the freshmen will attend summer school, so any wandering Thetes may find an open house at Θ^{Δ} this summer; all are welcome, as usual.

J. C. WILSON, Charge Editor.

At present there are only the following brothers left in college: C. R. Scott, '18, J. G. Merselis, '19, W. Watson, '20, Gaylord, Withrow, Wasson, Wagner and Cole, '21. The house seems pretty well deserted with so many gone, and as a result some of the freshmen have moved over from the dormitories to occupy the rooms of the departed members. Now with "Eddie" Brown gone, the football team is left without a captain for next year.

We have just raised a service flag in front of the house with fifty-one stars on it. Certainly a record to be proud of; there are about nine more stars to be added.

On May 4th we held an alumni get-together to talk over arrangements for next year, but owing to everybody being so busy and so many being in the service the gathering was small. Among those present were Brothers C. M. Davenport, '01, R. C. Gibbs, '00, E. F. Gibbs, '04, H. L. Everitt, '05, and B. Mears, '03.

Brother Merselis, '19, has been elected as head of the house, due to the departure of Brother Sibley, '18.

With the end of the first war year close at hand, K can look back on a season far more successful than even the most sanguine had dared to hope for last autumn, when five men, most of them on furlough, came back to the empty house on the hill. They faced the task of making good the losses that had been inflicted on the Charge by the enlistment of practically every member in June previous.

All the activities here have been on a wartime basis, and in spite of fuel shortages and enlistments we have contrived to keep things running in a fairly smooth way.

This spring, Brother O'Marra, as captain of the baseball team, has been leading the nine through the hard schedule with the result that his team has won a series of nine straight games. It is interesting to note that in the Tufts-Dartmouth game the rival pitchers were both Thetes, and it was only after a long, hard struggle that the experience of Brother O'Marra prevailed over the team for which Brother Harris was the twirler.

The elections of the sophomore, junior and senior honorary societies have just been made public with the result that Brothers Thompson and Colucci have made Sword and Shield. (Brother Thompson, president); Brother Sabine, Ivy; and Brother Lincoln, Tower Cross. Brother Lincoln has, also, just been elected to the presidency of the interfraternity council.

Brother Leon Ball, who is now in France with the Ambulance Unit, received, in absentia, one of the two Phi Beta Kappa elections, which the local chapter of honorary fraternity gave this spring to the members of last year's graduating class.

The usual social life on "the Hill" has been more or less dead during the last winter, but we of K decided to run a series of informal wartime dances, and the presence of many of the brothers, both of our own and sister Charges, in uniform, at these little functions surely made us feel glad that we had decided to have them.

After our last meeting of the year we plan, as has been the case in previous years, to hold a little informal spread in honor of our three seniors, Brothers Hunnewell, Miller and O'Marra, who leave us in a few weeks.

Thoughts of the last meeting involuntarily bring up the question of next year and its prospects. The brothers feel that, serious as the outlook is, the question mark is, however, not quite so black in its printing as it was at this time last year. A number of the active brothers are quite sure that they will be back, and so we look forward into the coming season with the same optimistic Thete spirit that accomplished so much last year. K knows that when her need is sore her alumni will not desert her.

In closing let me remind the brothers that we are within half an hour at most of Boston, and at this time when so many are in the service it is our hope that we may see more of the brothers at old K.

LEONARD CARMICHAEL, Charge Editor.

Initiates: Bankler L. Dunn, '20, Hillsboro, Ill.; William F. Giles, '21, Brookfield, Mo.; Donovan V. Mann, '21, Urbana, Ill.; Edmond C. Wilner, '21, Chicago, Ill.

The initiation of these men, which took place on April 15th, was followed by a banquet. Short talks were given by Brothers Clarke Bullard and F. C. Norlin. We are very glad to introduce these men to the fraternity, for we think they will make mighty good Theta Delt material.

Charge officers for the coming year were installed at the last meeting. They are as follows: Brother Noble, '19, president; Brother Tourtelot, '20, vice-president and house manager; Brother R. Risley, '20, secretary and SHIELD editor; Brother Westcott, '20, corresponding secretary and House Dope editor; and Brother Carnahan, '21, treasurer. These men are all of them younger than usual, and yet they have a more serious task laid out for them than ever before. However, they all realize their responsibility and are determined to put every effort into the proper maintenance of the Charge.

Since the last report the following men have left us to join the colors: Brother R. S. Tilden, '20, Photographic Section of the Aero Corps; Brother C. H. Groves, '19, Q. M. C., Utilities Department, Camp Grant, Ill.; and Brother R. E. Foulke, '18, Coast Artillery. Having completed his engineering work to the extent of the requirements, Brother Foulke was granted his degree upon withdrawal. He hopes to be sent to the next Coast Artillery Officers' Camp.

As in the past, K^Δ has maintained an aggressive spirit in the activities of the school, and we are still getting more than our share of the honors. Since the last report was made the K^Δ's have shown up exceptionally well. Brother Haake has been elected to Tau Beta Pi, honorary engineering fraternity, and to Ma-wan-da. This last society chooses its men from the most representative of the junior class, and election to its membership is considered one of the highest of the honors conferred in this school. Brother Noble has been appointed to the senior memorial committee; Brother R. Risley has been elected junior manager of the Circus, and Brother Westcott has been elected to the board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. Brother Tourtelot was recently initiated into Ku Klux Klan, honorary junior interfraternity society, and Brothers Carnahan and Johnson were initiated into Skull and Crescent, a sophomore society of similar nature.

The Illio, the Illinois year book, has just been issued. Even though Brother Haake as editor has been greatly handicapped by the war-time scarcity of men and materials, he has produced a volume that rivals any previous volume. His book will serve as a memorial to him long after he has left this school.

We are more than proud to announce another honor the gaining of which every active member of the Charge has participated in. In the scholastic ranking of the national fraternities of the school for the first semester of this year Theta Delta Chi placed second. This is the best that K^Δ has ever been able to attain, and it is certainly an improvement over the standing of the Charge in previous years. We cannot promise that we will maintain this standing, but we hope to keep it in that vicinity.

On Saturday, May 18th, Illinois celebrated the opening of the new Red Cross campaign with a big Mardi Gras. Because the profits were to go to the Red Cross, people were encouraged to spend freely; therefore financially, as well as in every other way, the event was a great success. Brothers Haake, Tourtelot, Henderson, W. Risley and R. Risley constituted our contribution to the various committees. Brother Rollo, B, who happened to be in town on business and was able to attend the Mardi Gras, was heard to remark, "The Theta Deltas must be running this thing." Not quite all of that, perhaps, but our brothers certainly worked hard to make it a go. The active Red Cross campaign, which starts this week and has set $4,000 as its goal, has drafted a number of the brothers, also.

According to the present war-time habits of saving, we have had but one spring dance, and it was given in conjunction with the Phi Kappa Sigmas, and was strictly informal. Due to the novel form of decoration and entertainment, the dance was a great success, this according to the participating co-eds of the school. The house was decorated to represent a western bar-room, but, of course, the affair was carried on strictly according to the standards of Hoyle.

The Charge is planning to celebrate the tenth anniversary of its birth on Saturday, May 25th. We are certainly proud of this ten years of existence, for by their persistent efforts our brothers have done a great work here. Many have gained honor for themselves, and all, through their combined effort, have put the name of Theta Delta Chi in a high rank at the University of Illinois. We surely believe that at the banquet we will have just cause to be happy and to glory over our achievements. We are sorry that this will not be in print soon enough to serve as an invitation to any Theta Delt who may be near enough to attend our feast.

Considering the conditions under which all fraternities are laboring, our outlook for the coming year is fine. With the anticipated return of one senior, four juniors and eight sophomores, we feel that we have nothing to fear. We will expend every effort in the rushing of the newcomers, and if we can obtain a number of good pledges during the first month of the school year, we will go right to work and train them for the responsibilities which most of them will sooner or later have to assume. We will be very grateful for any rushing suggestions that any Theta Delt can send us, and we will gladly consider any men who may be recommended.

Since the last letter to THE SHIELD, N has suffered the loss of two brothers: "Bob" Fay, '20, is in the naval aviation ground school at M. I. T., and Guy Bradford, '21, is at his home awaiting his call for the army aviation. Brothers Bankhardt, Harwood and Alfred Nalle have signed up for the one month's camp at Plattsburgh during the month of June. Our outlook for next year is not very encouraging, since we can count on only seven of the brothers returning; all of the others are in some branch of the service, or will be before the next college year. After several years of real work, Brother "Doc" Ashburn, '18, is to receive his M.D. this June. Brother Hammond, '20, expects to take the examination for naval aviation very shortly. Brother "Johnnie" Nalle expects his call for army aviation about the middle of June. We deeply regret the loss of these brothers, but we are indeed proud to give them up to such a noble cause.

Our annual Theta Delt banquet was held on April 27th, and it proved to be a great success, I am sure all of the brothers enjoyed it immensely. We were very glad to have Brother Ladd, Z '93, with us on that occasion.

The annual election of officers has been held and the following men have been chosen: Brother Hudson, '19, president; Brother Richard Ruffin, '20, treasurer; Brother Harwood, '22, recording secretary; Brother Bankhardt, '22, corresponding secretary; Brother Ford, '20, herald; Brother Alfred Nalle, '21, Charge editor.

We have enjoyed brief visits from Brothers F. E. Compton, Σ^A '98, Ex-P. G. L.; Frederic P. Ladd, Z '93; A. P. S. Robinson, E '18; H. S. Fentress, E '20; J. S. Davis, Jr., N '17; Thos. A. Nalle, N '13, and T. J. Pullen, Jr., E '17. We are always glad to have the brothers drop in, and, as usual, we extend a cordial invitation to all those who may be in the vicinity of "Virginia."

We are just at the close of a very successful year considering the very adverse circumstances under which the Charge started out. College closes on the fifteenth of May and some of the brothers have left already. However, we expect a fine year beginning next fall and are going to have at least five men to start with.

The elections for the coming term resulted in the following manner: President, J. K. Lees, '19; treasurer, S. Lindsay, '21; corresponding and recording secretary, H. S. Bunn, '20; herald, T. B. Rights, '21; Charge editor, E. W. Burgess, '21.

Besides working at top speed preparing for the coming finals during the past month, many of the brothers have been very active in collegiate circles. Brother Bunn is out for assistant manager of baseball, Brother Burgess for the business staff of the Burr, Brother Lindsay for the lacrosse team. A tennis team has also been formed and a number of matches are scheduled.

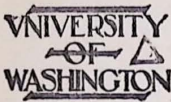

The house will be open all summer, and if any brother wishes to stay with us, we will be very glad to welcome him.

S. LINDSAY, acting for E. W. BURGESS, '21, Charge Editor.

At present Ξ has but six men left in the active Charge. Brother Blickensderfer, '18, is now in the Army, and Brother Cushing in the Navy. Brother Farrell expects to graduate, and Brother Vayo, '19, intends to take up medicine at the University of Buffalo next fall. So only four men will return next year, but all the brothers, active and graduate, are working hard to line up the proper sort of freshmen to retain the place which Ξ has always held at Hobart. Because of lack of men, the campus activities here have come almost to a standstill; but Ξ is doing her part in the few which remain, and as ever extends a hearty welcome to any brothers who may come to Geneva.

O. S. BREWER, Charge Editor.

Initiate: Stanley A. Durfee, of Hollywood, Cal. Brother Carl K. Wilson will be at the helm of Ξ^{Δ} next year. Brother William P. McGovern was elected treasurer, and Brother John Q. Adamson, secretary.

Ξ^{Δ} is entering the home stretch of the third quarter and bids fair to finish strong. None of the brothers are planning to attend the summer quarter, but we are assured of at least five returning to school next October.

Activities at Washington this year have been kept at normal, to say the least, and in some cases above normal, considering the percentage of students in school.

The brothers continue to uphold $\Theta \Delta X$ on the campus and are "bringing home the bacon" in several directions. Brother Foster McGovern made Oval Club, the highest award a man can receive who has served his alma mater. "Terry" also made Scabbard and Blade, and it was through his efforts that the Commerce Club was granted a charter from Beta Gamma Sigma national commerce fraternity. These fetes terminate an exceedingly active college career for Brother McGovern. He leaves May 15th to take his part with Uncle Sam in the United States Navy. Brother Brokaw was elected as junior representative on the board of control and is also a charter member of Quad, a new honor organization on the campus. Brothers Adamson and Hall have made Mask and Quill, and Brother Handforth was recently initiated into Sigma Xi. Brother "Bill" McGovern made the Gloucester crew and rowed at No. 3 in the big annual club race.

Last week out of the north woods came Brother Durfee, '16, a graduate forester. He has lived among the loggers and siwashes of western Canada for over a year and the brothers were certainly glad to see him again. He is trying to get into the Navy, so it looks as if his logger and siwash friends in Canada will be out of luck.

The week end of May 10th, 11th, 12th, saw one of the most successful house parties Ξ^{Δ} has ever pulled off. It was held on Vashon Island, at Swastika Lodge.

Rushing prospects are fairly bright for next year, and our date book is pretty full. Most of the fellows in high school who are not of age are coming to college.

Ξ^{Δ} extends the heartiest of wishes for a successful rushing season to the sister Charges.

FRED S. WIMAN, Charge Editor.

The Charge approaches the end of the year with seventeen men still in the undergraduate organization, Prospects are good for a fair representation of men back in college next fall, and plans are under way for rushing, which will come in an open season.

The end of the college year sees the completion of college activities. Brother McCrea has been chosen as next year's editor of The Dartmouth, the college newspaper, and Brother Leonard a member of the Aegis Board, the college year book. Brother Davis looks like a likely candidate for track captain, although elections will not be held until the end of the year. He made his letter by capturing first in the half mile at the Connecticut Valley Intercollegiates. Brother Wallace also won his "D" at that time.

The Charge has been favored by a visit from several of the brothers in the past month. Brother O'Mara, captain of the Tufts baseball team, was here when the Medford nine played in Hanover, and Brother Weeks, of Brown, was also a visitor.

We are looking forward to commencement with considerable pleasure, as there will be a fraternity reunion at the house, and a number of the men in service will be at Hanover at that time.

Initiates: Leo J. Federer, Joe H. Bolender, James H. McKay, Herman M. Breuer, C. Donald Hill, Chas. W. Russell, William F. Koch, Louis Carlson, Karl C. Miller, Malcom Mitchell, Stanley H. Mansfield, Henry H. Royce.

Σ^{Δ} celebrated her twenty-third birthday on May 25, 1918, and it was a celebration marked by wartime conservation. Thirty brothers were gathered round the table for this occasion, in contrast to the fifty-eight of last year. However, we had our service flag with us to show the reason for the lack of brothers back for the banquet. At this banquet it was decided to run the Charge next year, although we will be hit hard in these war-times. A canvass of men showed that fifteen would be back at the opening of the next term. Contrasting that with ten active men last fall when school opened, we feel assured of a good showing next year.

Brother Steven Patten, of Z Charge, lived with us the greater part of the year until he was called into service.

On the campus Σ^{Δ} has made a good showing this year, when we consider that we had only one junior, no seniors and nine sophomores. Brother C. E. Bach won his letter in swimming. Brothers Roland Sprinkman and Dalvan Julian won their numerals in football. Brothers Stokdyk, Bach, Dean and Bolender were active in the Edwin Booth Dramatic Club, which is limited to a membership of twenty-five, Brother Stokdyk being vice-president. Brother Rewey was initiated into Scabbard and Blade, honorary military organization, Brother Rewey being a captain in the R. O. T. C. Brother Leo. J. Federer was elected to the mandolin club, and Brothers Mitchell and Stokdyk served in the university band.

At the present writing $\Sigma\Delta$ has sixty-two men in the service, and by the opening of college in 1918 we will have approximately seventy-five.

ELLIS A. STOKDYK, President.

UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA

$\Phi\Delta$ has just about completed her course of study at Penn for her third year. All the Charges have found this year one of the hardest in their history, but for us, the baby Charge, it has even been harder. When we stop to think, very few of the faces that were found in 3810 Chestnut last fall are to be found there now. We have had, in this short time, three presidents, and every other office has changed hands at least once. Still, in spite of all these stumbling blocks, we have come out on top, over the top with the old Theta Delta Chi spirit, and, what is more, we are going to be the healthiest little baby that Theta Delta Chi has ever had if she will only give us the proper support.

The brothers now are getting ready for the final exams. We all are planning as soon as school is over to find some way in which we may do our bit this summer. Some will be in the service and others in the industries, but all will put their shoulder to the wheel and help push the great cause.

Activities are at a low ebb now, most things are over, but $\Phi\Delta$ is represented in the few remaining. Brothers J. C. Goeller, '19, and J. C. Twinam, '19, have been elected associate editors for the 1919 Class Record.

It seems that it is impossible for a SHIELD to slip by without adding several names to our service roll. $\Phi\Delta$ is proud of her record of enlisted men and is sure she will always be. Brother "Steve" Campbell, '19, has enlisted in the Ordnance Corps of the army, and will soon be in active service. Brother "Yank" Tremblay, '19, is now a "bird-to-be," and is in the ground school of naval aviation.

Although many brothers are leaving and many more will during the vacation months, still many of the younger brothers are planning to return to college next fall. The responsibility now rests on their shoulders, but it could not be safer. $\Phi\Delta$ will probably be in new quarters under new conditions soon, but any brother who is near Philadelphia and does not come out to see us is doing us an injustice; we want you.

WM. H. LIVINGSTON, '19, Charge Editor.

HAMILTON COLLEGE

The spring weather found the Theta Delta brothers well prepared for outdoor activities, as well as a few indoor. Our spring house party of last week end was a great success, the best ever, according to the reports of the sages. We pride ourselves on having had the best girls and the most pep of any fraternity on the hill. The weather was great and great weather in Clinton would be wonderful weather anywhere else.

Brother MacLachlan, '20, recently won his H in track, and Rice, '20, got a place in the high jump in our meet with R. P. I. last week. The freshmen brothers are occupying the tennis courts and some are working for places on the baseball squad. Harper, '21, is right out after the assistant managership of the nine.

Leland Rice, '20, is our president for next year and Kenneth MacLachlan, '20, is treasurer. These are just the men for the positions, and things are looking bright for Ψ next year.

We wish all the sister Charges as much success in the coming exams as we hope to have. Don't forget the open doors of Ψ whenever you happen to be around this part of the country.

Ralph Everett McMillin, I^A '05, Ω February 11, 1918.

Ralph Everett McMillin, one of the city's best known newspaper men, died at his home in Medford from pneumonia, at the age of 35. As a baseball writer McMillin gained his greatest fame, but it was not in that line only that he shone. He was a thorough-going newspaper man; one who could handle any task and do it well.

His entire newspaper career was in Boston. In 1904 he came down from his home in the Berkshires to accept a position on the Boston Record, then managed by William E. Barrett. His salary amounted to exactly $9 a week.

McMillin was one of a small but brilliant group of sport writers who had their start on the Record. Early in his career he displayed an aptitude for verse, which grew more marked as time progressed. He wrote some baseball and conducted a column for the Record. Soon his merits were recognized and the Boston Herald called him.

On the Herald, first as a general staff reporter and then as a sporting specialist, he attracted far greater notice. His staff work was good, but his knowledge of sporting matters stood him in greater stead. First he covered golf, then turned to baseball. Eventually he became sporting editor of the paper, then a copy reader, then Sunday editor and then back to the sporting editorship.

The Journal next called him and there he wrote baseball in a manner that attracted the attention of all lovers of the game. Prior to that time, he had been chosen local representative of the Baseball Writers' Association of America, and retained that position up to the minute of his death. Following a year or two on the Journal, he went to the American, where he was employed at the time of his death.

McMillin was born in North Adams, and received his early education there. He attended Andover, and from that prep school went to Williams and subsequently Columbia. He is survived by his widow, a son, John, and a daughter, Betty, who live at 31 Magoun Avenue, Medford, and by his father, mother and a sister, who make their home in North Adams.—The Boston Transcript.

Jay B. Benton, O^A '90, Ω May 25, 1918.

Jay B. Benton, for the past twenty years city editor of the Boston Evening Transcript, died May 25th at his home, 2 Summit Avenue, Winchester. For the past three years he had been in ill health and during the greater part of the last four months had been compelled to remain away from his desk.

Jay Bayard Benton was born in Guildhall, Vt., on April 10, 1870, and was the son of the late Charles Emerson and Adda (Chamberlin) Benton. Following his early schooling in Guildhall, Mr. Benton attended St. Johnsbury Academy, in Vermont, from which he was graduated in 1885. He was fully prepared for college at the age of 14, but was barred from entrance at that time by the fact that students were not received at Dartmouth under 16. He therefore went to New York in 1885 as librarian of the Young Men's Institute, where his exceptional musical accomplishments stood him in good stead. He had composed a meritorious concerto for the piano at the age of 10 years.

He entered Dartmouth in 1886, was graduated at the age of 20 and received the degree of A. M. in 1893. On leaving college he became a reporter on the Transcript. Later he served as assistant managing editor of the Boston Journal. After a time he returned to the Transcript to become assistant city editor and was advanced to the post of city editor in 1898.

In addition to his work on the Transcript, he was much interested in theatrical affairs and was Boston correspondent of the New York Dramatic Mirror from 1891 to 1912. For many years he was press representative of the Hollis Street Theater, the Colonial Theater and the Tremont Theater, and of the Park Theater until it became a moving picture house. He was also press representative of the Boston Museum until that old-time theater passed into history.

He had been an officer in all the branches of the Masonic fraternity and had received the 32d degree. He became a member of Benton lodge in Guildhall on May 16, 1901. This lodge was founded by his brother, Col. Everett C. Benton, who afterward became grand master of the grand lodge of Massachusetts. Jay Benton afterward joined William Parkman lodge of Winchester, his home, and he also became a member of Woburn Royal Arch chapter, Boston council and St. Bernard commandery, serving as captain general of the commandery at the time of his death. The Scottish Rite branch of Masonry attracted Mr. Benton and he became affiliated with all of the Boston bodies. He was also a member of Aleppo Temple of the Mystic Shrine and a member and past patron of Keystone chapter of the Eastern Star. He was the founder and an early president of the Transcript Disciples of Hiram.

Some years ago he became interested as an amateur in aeronautics. He had made numerous balloon ascensions and was the 33d man in America to receive a license as an international aeronautic pilot. In ballooning he won several prizes, including the Boston Herald cup and the Stevens cup for the longest flight on record in New England. He was president of the Aero Club of New England in 1912 and assisted in forming the Association of International Aeronautic Pilots, which he served as secretary. Before clubs in Boston and elsewhere he had delivered addresses on his balloon trips and experiences.

He was a member of the Dartmouth Association of Boston, Theta Delta Chi, University Club, Dartmouth Club, Vermont Association, the Newspaper, Papyrus, Point Shirley and Winchester Country clubs. He was a member of the St. Johnsbury Alumni Association and was one time its president. In politics he was a Republican. He was a bachelor and is survived only by his brother, Everett C., who resides in Belmont.—Boston Sunday Herald.

Chester Thomas Calder, Z '11, Ω February 4, 1918.

At the time of enlistment in Providence, R. I., in the United States Army Ambulance Service, June 7, 1917, the bright hopes of the thirty-six men, who constituted the Brown Unit (which was afterward known as Section 579) were for an early transport to France, there to take up the work of assisting in succoring the wounded. We were disappointed in not going over at once and our disappointment grew. We spent Christmas in Allentown, Pa., at the ambulance camp, and began the new year there. During all of our troubles, there was one man in our section who, though keenly sharing our disappointment, never once grumbled or criticized, always was smiling, ready to give a word of encouragement while trying to make our burdens easier; a conscientious, accurate and indefatigable worker for the good of the section, to whom we all, lieutenant, sergeants and privates, gave our greatest respect and good wishes. Such was First Class Private Chester Thomas Calder, clerk of the section and one of the oldest members in point of years.

"Chet," as we all liked to call him, was born in Providence, R. I., December 29, 1889, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Calder, 3 Benevolent Street. As early as his high school days, he showed great ability along theatrical lines and literary composition. He took part in the Hope Street High School productions, was president of his class in senior year and won the much-prized Anthony medal for the best original oration. Entering Brown University in the fall of 1907, in the class of 1911, he at once entered into college life and activities, easily making the Sock and Buskin, the college theatrical society. He was pledged early in the fall to the Theta Delta Chi and, upon final initiation, became one of her active supporters. Each year saw him progress in the courses he selected, winning appreciation from his professors and comrades as he went. In senior year "Chet" became president of the Sock and Buskin; those of us who saw him as Sir Joseph Surface, in the "School for Scandal," will never forget the excellence of his work. During this time he was associated with the "Players" of Providence, a private company of amateur dramatics, and after his graduation he became one of its most finished actors; membership in the "Players" was no easy attainment. From 1911 to 1917 "Chet" was for a while on the reportorial staff of the Providence Daily Journal and was occupied in writing and in active work on the stage, being at one time manager of the Modern Theater in Providence, playing and assistant stage manager of the theater in Northampton, Mass. and also an active member of Lou Telegen's New York company, in the "King of Nowhere," 1916. "Chet" was a man who possessed high ideals that he lived up to and certain ambitions that he saw slowly materializing before his untiring efforts. He was a man who neither smoked, drank nor used questionable language. He was a welcome addition to any gathering, and always drew the greatest respect from all of his associates. I, who knew him for so many years as brother without being tied by blood relationship, can write of him with a thorough knowledge of his sterling worth, yet I can but faintly express our great loss.

When the call came in June, 1917, for a section of ambulance men to be formed at Brown, "Chet" was among the first to offer his services. I remember his answer when asked why he volunteered: "Why, I did not think that I was physically qualified for any other branch of the service, so I enlisted in the ambulance that I might do my share in alleviating the suffering in France and ending the fearful slaughter."

Late in January of 1918 it was necessary to make up the muster and pay rolls for the month, and as the other clerk had been taken away temporarily, the whole work fell on "Chet's" shoulders. Characteristically setting to work at once without criticism, and even though suffering with an exceptionally heavy cold, he began to do two men's work in the allotted time. The work was practically completed when a malignant form of measles developed and he had to go to the hospital, where in a very short time pneumonia developed, and two days later he died, February 4, 1918, the first Z brother to go.

Our major commanding frequently remarked that "Chet's" work was always the neatest, always accurate and always on time, which was a high recommendation considering that there were ten clerks in the battalion. Of him the major says: "We were all deeply grieved at the loss by death of Chester Calder. He succumbed to a very peculiar type of measles—a type that was new to most of us here (Camp Crane). He was one of the very best young men that ever came to this camp, and anything that I could say would fall so short of doing him justice that I would not attempt it. I feel a great personal loss and bereavement over the passing of such a noble young man." And from the section to his parents: "The members of Section No. 579, United States Army Ambulance Service, wish to express their deep sorrow and sense of bereavement in the loss of their friend and comrade, Chester T. Calder, and to extend their most sincere sympathy to his parents in their grief. Always cheerful in the midst of hardships and disappointments we have shared, he was one of the most valuable members of our company; in losing him we already feel a gap that cannot be filled. Our common loss we know to be irreparable, but the memories of a life such as his should be a lasting support. In expressing our appreciation of the privilege we have had in his friendship and the respect we felt for him, there can be little consolation for you. Nevertheless, we wish to make you feel that we share your grief."

At the military funeral in Providence, the lieutenant and eighteen of the section from Allentown attended the services, also a delegation from the Z as well as personal friends from the faculty of Brown University; all of his many friends were met to do him reverence. He died fighting for his country even though his foot had not touched foreign soil.

Gentlemen:-

The exhibition of the Fageol Car at the Biltmore Hotel last week was a tremendous success. It created a sensation such as the automobile world has never known.

Twenty of the twenty-five cars offered were sold on the floor in four and a half days, and when one considers the average cost of the car being $13,000, it really is a remarkable performance for a new and formerly unheard of machine. This means that practically $260,000 worth of automobiles were sold, and we have a book full of live prospects requesting demonstration, which will more than take care of the five remaining cars.

We attribute this wonderful selling drive to the remarkable literature which you prepared and produced for us, for it created in the mind of the recipient a desire to see the car, and they came in droves with our invitations, letters and folders in their hands. After we had them at the Biltmore, the rest was easy, for the car simply sold itself, as it is without any question the most wonderful automobile that has ever been built, and is just five years ahead of anything else on wheels.

We repeat, - you succeeded in a masterful way in bringing the right kind of people to see the car.

We are unable to truly express our appreciation of what you have done for us. We shall always feel obligated to you, for you produced copy which was worth almost any price that you could have asked within reason, for it went over, and was the means of the most successful selling drive in automobile history.

Do not hesitate to use our name wherever we may be of service, for we shall always be proud to tell everyone just who and what you are, and what you have done for us.

Very sincerely yours,
HESTER MOTORS, INC.,

$260,000 WORTH OF AUTOMOBILES SOLD IN FOUR AND A HALF DAYS BY DANDO PLAN AND COPY SALES SERVICE

What Sold These Cars?

"The brute weight of money?"
No!
Very little money was spent. Very, very little.
Plan and copy put it over.
We planned the work and worked the plan.
The whole secret of success is contained in a letter, by Mr. Hester to our specialist—told in eight words,
"You are a genius with a master mind."

For a specimen of the sweep, style and selling breadth that put this thing across, send for The Selling Force and The Selling Farce, a book considered his master-piece. Please use your business letter head in making this request.

PLANNING AHEAD

HAS enabled the L. G. Balfour Company to considerably offset the continued rise in the cost of materials that enter into the manufacture of jewelry, by contracting for large quantities previous to the headlong jump in prices. You may be assured that if our prices are the same as formerly, the quality is also the same—that is the best. If the prices are raised it is because it's the only alternative we have to maintain our quality in face of present conditions.

The new Balfour Blue Book continues to be the standard reference book of Fraternity Jewelry. Your address on a postal will bring you a copy.

The Seventh Catalogue

has recently been issued. It is printed on India paper, in a very light and compact "pocket" edition, and contains a total of 7,889 names, being an increase of 1,514 since the publication of THE SIXTH CATALOGUE in 1911.

It is suggested that the Catalogue will make a splendid gift to brothers going on active service, as it will enable them to identify other Theta Deltas.

WE WANT TO SUIT YOU

As OFFICIAL JEWELERS to Theta Delta Chi, we are naturally mighty anxious to justify our permanent continuation in that position.

However, it is quite unnecessary for you to maintain any private cemeteries in which to bury our shortcomings.

Should we fail in the least respect to give you the very best in Quality and Service, you will be doing us a favor by immediately calling the matter to our attention.

The official $12 and $14 badges will be sent on memorandum for the inspection of any Charge.

ABOUT YOUR SUBSCRIPTION TO "THE SHIELD"

HERE'S THE IDEA. When you are writing that check for a subscription, it's no more trouble to make it $5.50 or $9.00 than $2.00.

BY SUBSCRIBING for three or five years you are assured of not missing a number, and then you save us the work of sending you a bill and perhaps two or three follow-ups every year.

COME ACROSS AND DO IT RIGHT. Here are the new rates—

$5.50 for Three Years

$9.00 for Five Years

AND AGAIN: When you find one of those yellow slips in your SHIELD, get busy and let us have your check at once. Don't compel us to send you a bill and keep after you. Give us your co-operation.

THANK YOU

THE SHIELD
